

Rami Sharkey

Born in Calgary, Alberta based in New Orleans.

Rami Sharkey is a self-taught artist primarily recognized for his abstract compositions on both canvas and paper which explore gesture and rhythm. He employs a process-oriented method, where he combines energetic gestures with mark-making, resulting in a record of movement.

Rami's paintings were first exhibited at LeMieux Galleries in New Orleans in the juried exhibition, "And Now For Something New Vol 4". Sharkey just recently closed his first solo exhibition "Paint Jobs" in March 2024. Rami continues to maintain a studio practice in New Orleans.
